S. Dozier New Store 206 Main Street Norfolk Virginia Academy of Music Building

AN EXPLANATION HOW WE DO IT?

Do you ask how it is that this new firm can afford to sell stylish and up-to-date stuffs at such surprisingly low prices? Do you wonder how we can progress on such narrow margins of profit? Well listen to the reason: We buy in vast quantities—direct—and for cash. Because of this method of merchandising the old middleman's profit is lost and our multitude of buyers reap the good results. We'll accept rapid sales and little profits every time in preference to slow sales and big gains, because it's the only progressive modern method of merchandising.

P. K. Skirts and Suits

A charming innovation! Extraordinary skill and taste are shown in the beautiful way these new skirts and suits are made and trimmed. They are beyond the "coming-up-to" of any Norfolk talent.

DESCRIPTIONS:—

Wide Welt White P. K. Skirt, trimming of white soutache with black center. Four rows run down either side the skirt in the most pleasing way surrounding and separating ten diamond shaped opening and extending nearly around the skirt, producing an effect extremely difficult to imitate, $4.95.

Wide Welt White P. K. Skirt, artistically ornamented with soutache and half inch shirred, colored trimming, cord lacing, $5.50.

Wide Welt White P. K. Skirt, encircled with two rows of shirred inserting, cord lacing, new shape, $4.95.

White P. K. Suits, trimmed in narrow cord, stitched with silk, newest style, $14.00.

Plain White P. K. Suits, new style, cord lacing, $3.50.

BERKLEY.

A row occurred in the Chesapeake knitting mill Friday afternoon between the overseer of the cording department, Mr. Andrew Douglas, and a boy named Edward Cullen. Blows were exchanged. Mr. Douglas had a warrant issued for Cullen, and the case came up before the Mayor yesterday afternoon, and he was fined $2 and costs.

While a case was being heard by the Mayor yesterday a white man named Gray, who was standing in the crowd, interrupted the court, loudly stating the prisoner had $200 sewed up in his pants legs, which caused quite a little commotion. The Sergeant ordered that he be put in the cell, but he was afterwards dismissed on apologizing to the court for his conduct.

Mr. L. N. Wood had a very painful but successful operation on his eye yesterday. A large cataract that almost covered the entire pupil of the left eye was cut out.

Prof. J. W. Roberts and family returned from Windsor, Va., yesterday, where they attended the obsequies of his mother. His school will open again Monday.

Mr. F. H. Holland, a popular young man of the town, will leave next week for Wilmington, N. C., to superintend the Cape Fear Lumber Company's plant. A number of his friends will give him a "set-out" Monday night.

Mr. H. E. Roane left yesterday afternoon for Baltimore, where he has accepted a position.

DEATH OF E. W. DUNN. E. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dunn, died last night at 11 o'clock at his residence, on Clifton street, after a protracted illness, aged 16 years.

He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital about three months ago for treatment, and was thought to be better about two weeks ago, and taken to the home of his parents, where he yielded to the inevitable.

THANKS EXTENDED. We, the managers of the "Rainbow carnival," desire to extend our thanks to all who in any way contributed to its success, especially to the members of our sister churches and to our friends for their efficient assistance; to the members of our own church for the coöperation with which they took hold of and prosecuted the same; to the press for giving daily such accurate reports of the carnival's happenings, and to the public generally for their liberal patronage and sympathy in our enterprise.

Rev. Dr. Long, of Elon College, will preach at Main Street Christian Church Sunday evening.

BERKLEY ADVTS.

DENN.—At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Dunn, on Clifton street, Berkley, 11 o'clock, Saturday night, E. WALLACE DENN, aged 16 years.

The funeral will be held from the family residence, 1000 GROW (London Ave.) TUESDAY at 3 o'clock. Friends invited.
